What a Bour'on Jury.

Deputy Sheriff Ben Freckman, of Fayette county, was here yesterday summoning a special venire of jurors to go to Lexington this morning. He summoned about 75 of our citizens. They are wanted for the jury to try the case of Taylor, the negro that killed a white man by the name of Moore in a Lexington saloon several months ago. It is Taylor's second trial, having been sentenced to hang at first trial, but Court of Appeals granted him a new trial.

A full line of Wash Suits can be found at Harry Simon's.

HARRY MORRISON KILLED

In L. & N. Collision at Winchester—Pay Train Crashed Into Caboose.

The L. & N. pay train, running at a high rate of speed, crashed into a caboose of a freight standing on the main track in the Winchester yards, killing Harry Morrison, of this city, of the freight crew, and A. L. Sommers, special agent of the L. & N., who was on the pay train, had three ribs broken. We are informed that Mr. Morrison had just come in from flagging, as his train was about ready to pull out, and had just climbed up on the rear platform of his caboose when the pay train came thundering around a curve and struck the caboose, knocking both ends out of the car. Mr. Morrison was caught like a rat in a trap, and had one of his legs cut off above the knee. He was taken to the hospital at Richmond, where he died from the shock yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. His remains were brought to this city last night at 9 o'clock on a special train and taken to his home on Fifteenth street.

Mr. Morrison was about 27 years old, an industrious and popular young man and well-liked by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, nee Miss Frankie Vanhook.

Funeral arrangements have not been made up to the time we go to press.

Game Ended in Murder.

The baseball ground at Grassy Lick, in Montgomery county, was the scene of a murder Saturday afternoon, and possible two, as the brother of the first victim seriously and perhaps fatally wounded his brother's slayer. A ball game among local youths was in progress, when John Karrich, aged 19, became involved in a fight with E. B. Puckett. He struck Puckett with a baseball bat, crushing his skull and causing almost instant death. While the other players stood about panic-stricken Puckett's elder brother rushed upon Karrich with another bat and inflicted injuries which may cause his death. The tragedy has caused great excitement, as both young men belong to well known families.

WITH A SILVER TROWEL

Gov. Beckham Laid Corner Stone of Kentucky's New Capitol.

Fully 5,000 people watched the laying of the cornerstone of the new Capitol at Frankfort, Saturday.

The streets were crowded with Kentuckians and ex-Kentuckians.

At 12:15 Gen. Daniel Lindsay, master of ceremonies, began his address, which was followed by a chorus of 200 in America. The invocation was uttered by Rev. J. C. Blayney.

Secretary of State McChesney delivered an address, historical in its nature as to Kentucky and its state houses of the past.

Ex-Senator Wm. Lindsay, of New York, spoke eloquently for thirty minutes then Governor Beckham took the silver trowel and formally laid the corner stone. He made a short address. Mayor Hume deposited the big copper box in the stone, the box containing the usual papers, names, etc.

After this ex-Governor Crittenden, of Missouri, and several other distinguished Kentuckians made short addresses.

The chorus sang "Old Kentucky Home" and thousands joined in the song.

Rev. C. R. Hudson pronounced the benediction and the whole ceremony was ended at 1:40 o'clock.
